BRIDGTON HIGHLANDS

Winslow Clark Drowned—Load of Hay Caught Fire—Activities at Highland Farm.

Winslow Clark, aged twenty-one, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eleanor Clark of Portland and the Highlands, passed into the great beyond Sunday evening, due to heart failure while swimming. A pulmonologist was used without avail after the body had been recovered by Morris Hilton and Phil Fitzpatrick. Young Clark was a student at Yale University and was exceedingly popular with his friends and townspeople due to his genial and democratic nature. This tragedy has affected the entire community and great sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Lewis Crosby met with a peculiar accident on the Lower Bridge one day last week when his truck loaded with hay caught fire from the exhaust. With great presence of mind Mr. Crosby succeeded in dumping the burning hay on the roadside, thus saving the truck from destruction.

Arthur Sanborn, with his crew, is now cutting the hay at the Ridgeway.

Miss Annette Lightfoot is having some extensive repairs made upon her two cottages in Ingalls Grove. Del Hilton is master carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leavitt and Lester Whitehouse were among those who enjoyed the moving pictures at the Walker Hall, one of their family horses being a prominent actor, and while we are speaking of the pictures, if any of the movie magazines had seen Add Flint, he would surely be called to Hollywood for he was there with the gang.

The Fitzpatrick did their usual entertaining on Sunday, having many guests due to their popularity with their friends.

During the past week at Highland Farm, Arthur Sanborn, proprietor, there have been additions to the summer guests: Mr. and Mrs. Victor Denson and daughter, Betty, of Riverside Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Garvin of Newton, Mass., Rev. Dr. and Mrs. LaBosquet of Fall River, Mass., and Mrs. Josephine and Betty Denson, Marie Perry, Mary Luke and Helen Hotchkiss. An interesting shadowgraph "The Operation", was presented by Mrs. Randall Weeks and her associates. Mrs. Weeks, who by the way is the wife of Harry Weeks, a well known local and radio artist, gave a skit entitled, "Stubby at the Dentist's" which brought down the house.

William Farrington of Albany, N. Y., Albert C. Perry and son, Samuel, motored to Glen Falls, N. Y., on a business trip, stopping off at Manchester, Vt., to play golf at the Equinox course.

The young men staying at the farm have made several expeditions to the ice caves at Greenwood and are planning an extended exploration to the caves Dick Lucke, Dutch Goodman, Meredith Witterdick, Stan Perry, Otto Franc and Jack Frank, under the leadership of Leigh Flint, crossed this group of explorers. Highland Farm is particularly popular and its guests look forward to returning every year. Arthur is an ideal host, his home cooking is unsurpassed and his guests always enjoy themselves to fullest extent.
